Dear Nebraska AEYC Member:

Do you have a strong commitment to making a difference in the early childhood education profession in Nebraska? Ensuring that every child reaches their full potential depends on valuing and supporting the work of early childhood education professionals and the environments in which they work.

We can't do this without the strong commitment, support and engagement of members like you. Are you looking for an opportunity to share or build your leadership skills and experience? We're looking for open-minded, future-focused, collaborative professionals to join our work!

Nebraska AEYC seeks to identify, engage and foster the growth of current and future early childhood education leaders. We invite you to consider becoming part of our team by nominating yourself, or someone you know, to serve on the Nebraska AEYC Board of Directors. Click here to access the nomination form: Nomination Form

With over 300 members, we are dedicated to advocating on behalf of this vital profession and are proud to empower all who care for, educate and advocate on behalf of children.

Nebraska AEYC is committed to:

- Increasing the quality of early childhood education environments
- Providing meaningful, rich and practice-changing coaching and professional development opportunities
- Advocating for and advancing the early childhood education profession
- Building leadership capacity of early childhood education professionals
