

1991 DISTINGUISHED SERVICE TO CHILDREN AWARD

Jeanne Webb - Grand Island

Jeanne Webb is the 1991 recipient of the NeAEYC Outstanding Service to Children Award. Jeanne is an outstanding member of the local childcare community. Through her efforts, Grand Island and surrounding communities have a local AEYC affiliate and the opportunity to learn in an excellent childcare training program.

Jeanne holds a Master of Science Degree in Human Development and the Family from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln. Jeanne has been an instructor in the Child Care Program at Central Community College, Grand Island Campus since 1981. After being hired by Central Community College, she worked to get a NeAEYC affiliate for the Grand Island and Hastings area. The Platte Valley affiliate was started in 1982 and Jeanne served as president from 1982-1984.

Jeanne greatly deserves recognition for her many contributions to childcare and the children of Grand Island and surrounding communities.
