Faculty member submitting recommendation: Crystal Kozak and Janeen Ward

Date submitted: 5-21-2015

Information about activities, accomplishments, leadership traits:

Leonore is an active member of the SCC Student Group currently serving as the group's Secretary. Leonore has taken an active leadership role in the student group by participating in all group activities and speaking to fellow students in early childhood education classes. She exhibits leadership skills in her actions with fellow students and others in our community. She has a high level of initiative and is willing to look for opportunities to learn and grow as a young professional. Her mature confidence, calm and patient demeanor are assets to her leadership abilities.

Leonore currently holds a 3.8 GPA in the ECED Program and excels in all areas. She is highly conscientious, organized, and has a thorough understanding of early childhood and developmentally appropriate practices and strives to implement what she has learned in her work with young children and families.

Leonore was nominated by ECED Faculty and was the recipient of the Student Excellence in Academic Achievement Award in 2014.

Leonore has previous teaching experience as an Ameri Corp volunteer working with kindergarten age children on the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota.

Student's future plans:

Continue her education and pursue a Bachelor's degree.
